KidSafe Collaborative, Inc.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission or Most Significant Activities

KidSafe Collaborative engages agencies, community organizations and individuals to work together to improve our community's response to child abuse and neglect.

KidSafe Collaborative works to support the safety, health and well-being of children, primarily in Chittenden County, Vermont, on two levels: 1) to improve the systems that prevent and address child abuse and neglect, and 2) to support families through facilitation of interagency Child Protection Teams.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Achievement

within Howard Center's First Call 24 hour crisis line, providing service coordination for children/families dealing with parental incarceration. Program activities take place almost entirely in space donated free of charge by collaboration partner agencies or other non-profit entities including clinics, schools, community centers, churches, etc. Per calendar year, at least 60 hours of support are donated.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Second Achievement

Typically these teams convene on behalf of close to 400 children and adults annually, in order to ensure access to coordinated services aimed at preventing and reducing child maltreatment. Child Protection Teams are composed of service providers from a range of agencies, who contribute their time (totaling approximately 500 hours) to providing this service; these teams meet in donated space provided by schools, community centers
